DIRECTOR, REGIONAL PLANNING AND COORDINATION

RSP17 Report Schedule and Process

- July 7: Draft RSP15 Report posted for PAC review and comment
  - The report will be posted in MS Word as a CELL-protected document
  - Readers are cautioned: Do not quote or cite the draft report
- July 24: By close of business, all written comments due from PAC members to pacmatters@iso-ne.com
- August 3: PAC discussion of written substantive comments submitted
  - Discussion of minor new comments will be discussed as time permits
- September 14: RSP Public Meeting

RSP Comments – Due Close of Business July 24

- Stakeholder comments are a necessary part of the RSP process
  - As appropriate, comments have been reflected in past RSPs
- Comments must be relevant to information previously presented to PAC and not introduce new scopes of work
  - ISO has followed the scope of work discussed with PAC
  - The report is about 150 pages and provides references to detailed information
- Please focus comments on the substance of the report
  - ISO's Technical Editor will reflect comments in the report as appropriate to avoid repetition, etc.
  - The final report will be fully copy edited, contain revised footnotes with live links, and will reflect updates to items marked in yellow within the report
- The commentator will be made public unless ISO receives a request to keep the commenter anonymous
- Original comments will be posted on the ISO website and will be CEII protected

New and more efficient process for submitting comments

- The ISO seeks to facilitate discussion of comments received
  - The ISO wishes to make sure that all substantive comments are captured for discussion at the August 3 PAC meeting
- Comments must be sent to ISO in a form that will be posted on the PAC website
  - Please indicate the pages and section numbers
  - Individual comments pertaining to each page of the RSP should be entered separately into the form
  - Comments in the form of redlines to the draft RSP17 are acceptable, but need to appear in the appropriate column of the form
  - Do not send comments in PDF format
