

Forward Capacity Market New Generation Project Direct Connect Review

Instructions: The purpose of this form is to collect additional information about new generation projects seeking to qualify for the Forward Capacity Market. This form should be submitted during the Show of Interest Window via the Forward Capacity Tracking System. Complete and upload this form as part of the project's "Interconnection Study Document" attachment during the SOI submission process. Multiple documents may be uploaded to this field as a compressed .zip file.

Project Name:

Project Type:

Resource ID:

Lead Participant:

Market Participant Status:

* Project Sponsors are required to become Market Participants by the Market Participant Status Deadline.

1. General Project Description: Provide a brief overview of the project. Include details such as the generation technology, generation unit model/manufacture, and fuel source/procurement plans.

2. Project Site Description:

Exact Project Site Address

(as it appears on site control and interconnection application)

Project Site Acreage:

Provide a brief description of the geographic landscape of the project site and the plot's current ownership status and usage.

3. Project Siting/Permitting: Provide a brief summary of the status of all siting/permitting applications related to the project. Include details related to any potential challenges in gaining approval of these application.

4. Supporting Interconnection Studies: Provide a brief summary of the status of any supporting interconnection (Feasibility/System Impact) studies for the project, including projected completion dates.